FEAR OF A STRIKE.

Bakers Resent the Decision on the 10-Hour Law.

New York, April 19.—The decision of the United States supreme court against the constitutionality of the bakers' 10-hour law, it is feared, is followed by a strike of 85,000 bakers in the leading cities of the country.

Frank H. Harzbecker, secretary of the Journeymen Bakers and Confectioners' International Union, declares that there will be a fight all along the line if the bakers' demand for a 10-hour day is refused on May 1.

All the union officials in this city declare that there will be no let-up in the fight, despite the nullification of the state law.

In Greater New York an agreement between 3,000 journeymen and their employers will expire on May 1. The bakers desire a renewal of the contract. The employers are willing to pay union wages, they say but are opposed to any formal agreement, so that a strike is considered likely.

TREPOFF'S NIECES IN BAND

Arrests in St. Petersburg Prove Interesting — Authorities Count Them of Great Importance — Slayer Sentenced.

St. Petersburg, April 19.—Gradually many interesting details surrounding the recent arrest of a band of about a dozen terrorists are leaking out.

The capture, which is regarded by the authorities as being of immense importance, was accomplished by Kashovsky, the Russian Lecoq, who was dismissed from the secret police several years ago on account of his connection with Philippe, the spiritualist, who created such a stir at court several years ago, and who then went to Paris to live.

Gov. Gen. Trepoff, upon his appointment as governor-general of St. Petersburg, induced Kashovsky to return to St. Petersburg and within two weeks the detective captured the entire band, which had been operating here under the direction of central organization, which apparently has its headquarters in Switzerland.

Alfred H. McCullough, the man killed March 11 by the accidental explosion of a bomb at the Hotel Bristol, whose real name was Bauman, was one of the chiefs of the terrorists, having charge of the manufacture of bombs, and Kaleiff, who killed Grand Duke Sergius, also belonged to the same group.

After Bauman's death Kaleiff's duties devolved upon Mlle. Leontieff (the daughter of Gen. Leontieff, who recently was appointed governor of Yakutsk, eastern Siberia, who became a convert to terrorism during her stay at Lucerne, Switzerland).

Kaleiff's identity was established through the discovery of a photograph belonging to Savinkoff, who had been his comrade both at the university and in exile. When Kaleiff was charged with his identity he admitted it, saying immediately:

"Savinkoff has been arrested."

The police later thought they had captured Savinkoff and so announced publicly. But it turns out that the man held under that name was another, and that Savinkoff, to whom Kaleiff evidently had confided his intention of killing Grand Duke Sergius, is still abroad.

Among the others captured was Mme. Ivanovskaya, a sister-in-law of Korolenko, the Russian author. She was involved in the nihilist plot to assassinate Emperor Alexander II, for which she was sentenced to 15 years in Siberia, but at the end of seven years escaped to America.

Perhaps the most romantic feature is the fact that Mlle. Leontieff converted two nieces of Gov. Gen. Trepoff, Mlle. Trepoff and Princess Denisheff, to the doctrine of assassination, and that, after the arrest of her mentor, Mlle. Trepoff actually attempted the life of her uncle, firing two shots at him, both of which missed.

Thereupon the girls became panic-stricken and attempted suicide. Mlle. Trepoff throwing herself under a train and Princess Denisheff shooting herself. Neither of them succeeded in killing themselves.

The family has since tried to make it appear that the girls' acts were the result of a mutual pact for self-destruction, both being in love with the same man, an officer of the guards.

About 100 male and female students of the conservatory of music who have been connected with the agitation in favor of Rimsky Korsakoff (who was removed from his professorship in the conservatory because of his attitude toward the striking students) have been arrested and sentenced to a month's imprisonment.

Would Not Plead to Charge, Declaring He Was a Prisoner, Taken in Civil War.

Moscow, April 19.—The trial of Kaleiff (who killed Grand Duke Sergius) by the supreme court began yesterday.

Paris, April 19.—The Echo de Paris learns that an agreement between France and Germany upon the Moroccan question is ready for conclusion. In it France admits the principle of the "open door" in Morocco so far as regards Germany.

She declares herself opposed to all exclusive monopolies. Germany agrees not to interfere with the reformatory work of France and accords a mandate to her in Morocco, limited by the "open door" and the Sultan's authority.

HYDE HISSED BY AGENTS

Vice-President of Equitable Retires From Meeting.

THEY ENDORSE ALEXANDER

Hyde Advises Agents Not to Sell Future Interests as Tarbell Did—Tarbell Retorts Will Never Be Necessary for Him to Pay Back Money.

New York, April 19.—The first act of the general agents of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, who met yesterday at the Savoy Hotel to consider the present difficulties which beset the company, was to pass a resolution endorsing the business contract of President Alexander and calling for mutualization under some plan. The resolution was passed by a vote that was practically unanimous. There was nothing said in the resolution as to the plan of mutualization, but a committee was appointed to look into what had been done with regard to the matter. The general opinion seemed to be that whether the mutualization should come in the form of Vice-President's Hyde's two-year plan or on the lines of the one to make the company mutual under the existing charter, it should come quickly.

James W. Alexander, president of the company, was in attendance, and so was James H. Hyde and Gage E. Tarbell, vice-presidents.

Mr. Hyde was hissed when he got up to make his speech at the meeting. When the hissing quieted down he turned to the crowd and said:

"I consider that the greatest compliment that you could pay to me, for the man who led you in your hisses is not considered a good man at all. If I have done wrong, kick me out. If Mr. Alexander or Mr. Tarbell have done wrong, kick them out. That is what you are here for. You are to decide."

Mr. Hyde then left the meeting, saying as he left the elevator: "If they want me they can send for me. They know where to find me."

Mr. Hyde looked much perturbed, although he would not give his reason for leaving.

Hyde in his remarks said: "I hope that all the men here are agents who have the future of the society at heart and who will not follow the example of one officer of the society who sold out his future interests."

Mr. Tarbell did not let the remark go unnoticed, for when he followed Mr. Hyde he said in the course of his address: "It will never be necessary for me to pay back one penny of my money to the Equitable Society."

Is Brought Into Court for Third Trial—Two Hundred Talesmen for the Jury.

New York, April 19.—After many delays, Nan Patterson yesterday for the third time was brought into court to stand trial on an indictment charging her with the murder of Caesar Young, the wealthy bookmaker.

The two first juries which the young woman faced were in the supreme court but the present trial is taking place in the court of general sessions, before Recorder Goff.

The court room was filled with a special panel of 200 talesmen, and a crowd of sightseers packed the corridors. Counsel for each side was allowed 30 challenges.

By special order of Recorder Goff, the presence of women in the court room during the trial will not be permitted.

Lovell M. Aldrich, manager of the American Ice Company of No. 23 East Sixty-eighth street was the first juror selected.

Mr. Limburger, counsel for the Smiths, was given until today to issue or submit an affidavit in reply to Mr. Jerome, if he desired. When Mr. Limburger left the court room he sought Mr. Levy and Mr. O'Reilly, counsel for Nan Patterson, and had a conference with them.

WHY WE RECOMMEND ORRINE TO CURE DRUNKENNESS.

In taking the agency for Orrine, the liquor habit cure, we thoroughly satisfied ourselves that it was an article of genuine merit, and that the company, which is located in Washington, D. C., deals squarely and lives strictly to the guarantee, "If the cure is not made the money will be refunded."

Since selling Orrine numerous cases have come to our knowledge that have been cured of the horrible liquor habit by this meritorious article, which strengthens the nervous system and destroys the craving for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1 should be given to cure the patient without his knowledge. It can be put into coffee or food, as it is tasteless, colorless and odorless.

We think that when the excessive drinker is approached properly he will be willing to be cured. If he consents, purchase Orrine No. 2, which is put up in pill form. Either form sells at $1 per package. Step into our store and receive full information regarding Orrine, the remedy that usually cures the liquor habit. If you will write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., they will send you a free book on "Drunkenness" in a plain paper wrapper.

We have great confidence that Orrine cures the drink habit, and highly recommend it to you. Red Cross Pharmacy, Rickert & Wells, proprietors, Barre, Vt.

CHECK ON VENEZUELA.

American Asphalt Company Asks That a Halt Be Called.

Washington, D. C., April 19.—The American Asphalt company has given notice that it does not propose to submit without protest to the continuance of the present state of affairs in Venezuela, so far as it affects the company's properties, held under the New York & Bermudez Company's titles.

Counsel for the asphalt company, Prof. John B. Moore and Mr. Lindsay, appeared at the state department yesterday to urge action by this government to secure a restoration of the company's property to the hands of its agents, pending the final decision of the question of title now before the Venezuelan courts.

The asphalt lake is now in the possession of a receiver appointed by the Venezuelan court, who is mining asphalt and selling it, and the company asks that this be stopped until the case is legally determined.
